

REMUNERATION POLICY

1. INTRODUCTION

The Remuneration Policy establishes formal and transparent policies and procedures for recommending compensation packages for Directors and Chief Executive Officers ("CEOs"). The Policy aims to leverage compensation and benefits to attract, retain, and develop key talent, as the Board of Directors acknowledges the vital role of human capital in achieving the company's strategic objectives.

The Policy applies to the following:

- Executive Directors
- Non-Executive Directors
- CEO's

2. REMUNERATION POLICY

2.1 For the purposes of this Policy, the term "remuneration" shall mean cash and all non-cash benefits received whatsoever.

2.2 No Director shall be involved in fixing his/her own remuneration.

2.3 Remuneration will be reviewed annually, and changes will be recommended if the Remuneration Committee deems it necessary.

2.4 Remuneration of Non-Executive Directors

2.4.1 Each Non-Executive Director will be entitled to a monthly fixed fee based on market factors and other requirements to attract and retain appropriate directors. The fee will be reviewed periodically.

2.4.2 The remuneration of Non-Executive Directors shall be decided by the Remuneration Committee and recommended to the Board of Directors, who shall take the final decision.

2.4.3 Non-Executive Directors shall be entitled to reasonable costs and expenses of travel and accommodation if based overseas.

2.5 Remuneration of Executive Directors and CEO

2.5.1 The remuneration of Executive Directors and CEO shall be decided by the Remuneration Committee and recommended to the Board of Directors, who shall take the final decision.

2.5.2 The remuneration packages will be decided on the basis of facts such as, the size and scope of the duties, skills, experience in the organization and replaceability.

2.5.3 Executive Directors and CEO's remuneration shall include fixed monthly compensation and variable compensation, benefits and other work-related facilities and perquisites.

2.5.4 The remuneration packages of Executive Directors and CEOs should be designed to be competitive and to motivate and drive them to achieve business targets but should not detract from the goals of corporate governance.

2.5.5 Variable compensation will be based on the level of achievement of pre-agreed business targets taking into account the challenges in the operating environment.
